Slogan: Theater for all People

Focus Mission: To inspire and nurture a diverse community through the arts.

Vision Mission: HMTc is a place for diverse community members to practice their truth through creative expression with acceptance, inspiration, and encouragement by promoting our cultures through community building, today, and tomorrow.

Equity Mission: Hanford Multicultural Theater Company was founded on the premise that people with differences have been neglected and swayed away from enjoying or learning the arts and that this inequity must no longer be ignored. It is the commitment of HMTc to embrace and invite ALL PEOPLE, especially people of color, the racially and ethnically different, mixed raced persons, people with cultural and language differences, intergenerational, the indigenous and tribal communities, immigrant, refugee, and LGBTQIA+ communities to experience and partake in the arts in a nurturing environment to correct this inequity. HMTc is committed to correct this artistic injustice by providing arts opportunities in a nurturing and inviting environment.

Organization's Core Programs and Services: To improve the livability of our community and equal access to the arts, we offer free acting, improvisation, puppetry, Shakespeare and scene-study classes for children, teens, and adults of all ages, abilities, and cultures, including our local service members. We organize the annual Hanford Dia de Los Muertos cultural community event, and the Hanford Monologue Slam. We do puppet shows, improv shows, and Old-Time-Radio shows, for the younger and older community. We produce plays with diversity and relevancy to our diverse culture community. We are an all-inclusive entity which includes our disabled, and mentally challenged community. Participant age range is from 3 to 90. We draw participants from Hanford, Armona, Kettleman City, Fresno, Avenal, Lemoore, Dinuba, Pixley, Riverdale, Tulare, Visalia, Corcoran, Laton, and Kingsburg to our Hanford theater.
